GIANTS AGAIN DEFEAT YANKEES; SERIES TIED

Nationals Win From Huggins Team Tuesday
By 8 to 5 Score.

RUTH OUT OF GAME

Yankee Fielder Unable to Play—Through For Season.

Polo Grounds, N. Y. Oct. 11.—The New York National League team came back today and for the second time in the big series, evened the standing of the teams, by defeating the American League champs, 8 to 5.

Clear but cool weather greeted the players as Toney and Harper faced each other on the mound, the latter for the first time in the series. Neither lasted beyond the second inning, Toney being jerked in the first and Harper in the second, Barnes and Shawkey succeeding them at serving up the curves.

In the first half of the second, Harper, starting his first game of the series for the Yanks, was the victim of two home runs, which tied the score. E. Meusel knocked a homer with one man on base, and Snyder made a circuit clout with the sacks empty. Shawkey replaced Harper and Barnes took Toney's place.

McGraw's mountaineer, Fred Toney, starting his second game, after being knocked out of the box last week, suffered a similar humiliation today, when he was chased to the showers with three runs in the first inning.

The scoring began in the first inning, when the Yankees solved the offerings of Fred Toney, for three counters before the carnage ended. Facing this big lead in the second inning, the home-run stanza, the Giants evened the count, with another trio of markers, when E. Meusel, Giant Gardner, knocked a home run with one man on base and Snyder repeated with another circuit clout, with the sacks empty.

In the home-run getting feature, the Yankees were not to be outdone. In their half of the second inning with the score kotted, Fewster, who is playing in place of Babe Ruth, knocked a home run with one man on base, and putting his team again in the lead by the score of 5 to 3.

The Giants shattered the hopes of the junior league outfit again in the fourth inning, when they slaughtered the offerings of Shawkey, who succeeded Harper in the box in the second inning, for four runs, and they added another in the sixth. In the meantime, Barnes, who relieved Toney in the first inning seemed to settle down to earth after the second inning and kept the Yankees from getting dangerous.

The score:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Giants	0	3	0	4	0	1	0	0	8	13	0
Yankees	3	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	5	7	2

Batteries: Giants, Toney, Barnes and Snyder.

Yankees: Harper, Shawkey, and Schang.

Umpires: Moriarity at the plate; Quigley at first base; Chill at second base and Rigler at third base.

New York, Oct. 11.—"Babe" Ruth, king of swat, whose infected arm has caused him much pain during the past two games of the world's series, announced today that he would not play in any more games this year on advice of his doctors.

Polo Grounds, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Ruth is a great story. Painters of fancy word pictures have seized upon him as a hero, though he has not struck any shattering blows.

The babe fanned three times yesterday yet he grabs the headlines because he pulled an unexpected bunt and scored the winning run. Bob Meusel, who drove Ruth home and who snatched Hoyt from a desperate predicament with his powerful arm deserves as much credit as Ruth or Hoyt but the babe is a natural fall guy for the candied ecomium of the experts.

Most dramatic of all was his collapse in the Yankee dugout after he had scored the winning run in the fourth.

A doctor was hastily summoned from the stands to aid Al Woods, the Yankee trainer, who rendered first aid. Jacob Ruppert, one of the owners of the club, rushed to the dugout and stood by as the doctor worked on Ruth.

It was a dramatic moment. The Giants had come in from the field and the Yanks were going out. Earl Smith was already advancing to the bat but there was no Ruth. The left field bleachers—Babe's range—peered anxiously towards the dugout. They had bottled up a great cheer for Ruth's run and they were choking up with it.

George Levy, official announcer, came running over to the press box.

"Ruth has fainted on the bench," he sputtered.

The clatter of fifty "expert" typewriters stopped suddenly. Only the telegraph instruments rattled on as the operators cocked their ears.

Something had to be done. The umpires could not hold up the game, and once a substitute was announced for Ruth he was done for the day.

Then a cheer went up from thousands of throats as the big fellow stepped out, battered and groggy, but still in the game.

COUPLE ARRESTED, ALLEGED TO HAVE DEFRAUDED BANKS

Forged Checks in Past
Three Years Total About
$50,000.

Cleveland, Oct. 11.—"Lieut." Charles Sydney Breese, 38, and a woman registered as Mrs. Anna Breese, 24, are under arrest today charged with defrauding banks in the United States and Canada of more than $50,000 through forged checks in the past three years. The couple were arrested last night as they were sitting down to dinner in a furnished apartment on Wade Park Avenue.

When Breese was searched, cards bearing the name "Lieut. Sidney Breese, V. C. eleventh Hussars, British army," were found in his possession. Both are said by police to have admitted their guilt. Check books, bearing the names of merchants in all parts of the country, were found in the apartment.

The woman, who said she was a native of London, Ontario, blamed her husband for starting her on her crime career. She said that he induced her three years ago to pass a check which she believed to be good only to learn later that it was forged. She then joined him in Toronto where they were married, she said, and since that time they have passed checks in almost every large city in the United States.

DECIDE TUESDAY ABOUT TRIAL FOR ACCUSED COUPLE

Mrs. Obenchain and Arthur C. Burch May Be Tried at Same Time.

Los Angeles, Oct. 11.—Mrs. Madeline Obenchain and Arthur C. Burch jointly charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy wealthy young broker probably will know whether they will stand trial together or alone. The motion for separate trials is to be argued to day before Judge Sidney N. Reeve.

It was understood before court convened that Deputy District Attorney Asa Keyes would ask that the motion for separate trials be denied on the ground of needless expense to the state.

Ralph Obenchain, former husband of Madeline, and attorney Warren Williams were to ask a separate trial for the accused woman, while Paul W. Schenck was to appear for Burch.

EPIDEMIC OCCURS

Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 11.—An epidemic of diphtheria and scarlet fever has reached such serious proportions here that a rigid quarantine has been established over the town. Under its regulations churches, schools, theaters and billiard parlors are closed indefinitely while children under 16 years of age are forbidden to ride in autos or other conveyances to reach their homes.

SENATE PASSES BORAH BILL TO EXEMPT U.S. SHIPS USING CANAL FROM TOLLS

Enough Democrats Swing Over to Make Majority Despite Opposition of Seventeen Republicans—Matter Now Goes to House.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The Borah bill for tolls exemption of American coastwise vessels passing through the Panama Canal was passed by the senate yesterday, 47 to 37. The measure now goes to the house, where it is expected it will be subject to indefinite delay in consideration, at least until after the conference on limitation of armament.

Before proceeding to a final vote the senate rejected without a roll call two substitutes offered by Senator King to authorize the president to negotiate for arbitration of the tolls question and to appropriate $2,000,000 as a subsidy for American vessels using the canal. Debate on the Borah proposal disclosed a split in party ranks, opponents declaring the bill was inopportune, while Senator Borah declared he had talked with President Harding and Secretary Hughes and they did not share such views.

Twelve Democrats voted for the bill on the roll call while 17 Republicans voted in opposition, so that the Democratic support was regarded as the determining factor.

FIRST SESSION OF CONFERENCE IN ISLES, BRIEF

Second Meeting Called For Late Tuesday Afternoon.

HOLD PRISONERS

War Office Will Refuse Demand of Sinn Fein to Release Men

London, Oct. 11.—The first session of the momentous Irish peace conference to settle the quarrel of seven centuries between Ireland and England lasted barely two hours. The Irish delegates and the British envoys left Premier Lloyd George's official residence at 10 Downing street just before 1 o'clock. They were smiling and apparently satisfied. The police had difficulty in clearing a way through the crowd for the Sinn Feiners' motor cars. The Irish got a big ovation.

The second session of the conference was summoned for 4 o'clock. A brief communiqué was issued but it merely contained a list of the delegates present, together with the time of the second meeting.

Only five of the six British delegates were present when the momentous and long heralded Irish peace conference opened today in Premier Lloyd George's official residence at 10 Downing street. The absent was Austin Chamberlain, government leader in the house of commons who is described as "the most conciliatory member of England's big six." He is suffering from a slight attack of illness.

It is learned that the war office, anticipating a demand by the Sinn Fein for the liberation of the Irish prisoners in detention camps, has reported to Downing street ruling against such action. It was pointed out that the liberating of the Irish prisoners would free 3,000 officers of the Irish Republican army.

"Hurrah for Mike Collins," and "Hurrah for the Irish republic," echoed in the streets outside the British government buildings. Both civil and military branches of the British and the Sinn Fein governments are represented.

The personnel of the Sinn Fein delegation was: Arthur Griffith, "vice president of the Irish republic," and founder of the Sinn Fein organization, chairman; Michael Collins, commander-in-chief of the Irish republican army; Eamonn Duggan; George Gavan Duffy; Robert C. Barton.

Erskine Childers, who accompanied the Sinn Fein envoys from Dublin is acting as secretary to the delegation.

The attitude of the press was summed up by the Daily Chronicle, the personal organ of Premier Lloyd George:

"The public may well be advised to blend prudent caution with optimism regarding the outcome of the parley."

FIND QUARANTINE LAW NOT OBeyed

Columbus, Oct. 11.—Reports of quarantine violations and removal or destruction of contagious disease cards are reaching the state department of health which admonishes the public that quarantine rules and posting of cards are in conformity with law and that infractions are subject to penalty. Health commissioners have been notified to enforce the rules vigorously.

At Springfield, quarantine violations have been so numerous the health commissioner has asked police to assist in enforcement and has issued a warning that infractions will not be tolerated. At Wapakoneta one man was heavily fined for destroying a diphtheria card posted on his house.

KISSING THROUGH SCREEN IS URGED

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 11.—That a number of state senators have signed a petition asking Lieut. Governor Brown, as presiding officer of the state senate and Senator Whittemore, Akron, Republican floor leader, to reconvene the Ohio senate is a statement made here.

President Ebert presided at the cabinet meeting which was convened immediately after the return to this city of Chancellor Wirth. The object of the conference was to agree upon a clear cut ministerial program.

Her St. Hamer, German ambassador to England, was instructed to impress upon the British government the position of Germany which might be summed up as follows:

Unless Upper Silesia is saved for Germany the Wirth cabinet must throw up its hands, and resign in a cloud of ignominy, having failed to rescue for the nation the one thing upon which Germans had pinned their hopes to enable them to pay the staggering indemnity imposed upon them.

PROBE PERSONNEL OF LIMA POLICE

Lima, Oct. 11.—Probe of the personnel and affairs of the Lima police department was started today by a commission of three citizens selected by Mayor Frank Burkhardt. The commission includes Thomas R. Hamilton and L. Earley Ludwig attorneys and Frank C. Povenmire, real estate dealer.

The investigation was ordered after Fred W. Zeits, president of the civil service commission charged the police department and its chief with corruption in an address before the Allen county law enforcement league.

The last official declaration on the treaty was the Wilson bill of 1914, repealing the free tolls bill passed late in the Taft administration. Senator Borah said, adding that it was desirable that there should be a later conference to give force to the American position in event of arbitration.

His bill, Senator Borah said, would open the way for Great Britain to ask arbitration, which, he added, probably would result.

Murdered Attorney Lived In Xenia When a Boy

LUCIEN A. SOWARD

Lucien A. Soward, 47, Dayton attorney, who was brutally murdered in his office in the Reibold building, Dayton, shortly afternoon Monday, was formerly of this city, being born here.

The murdered attorney is a son of the late Alfred Soward, who for many years conducted a music store in a room on South Detroit street, where the Allen building now stands. His store was well known in this section of the state.

Mr. Soward, senior, built the house on West Market street, that is now occupied by the family of H. S. LeSourd, being sold by the Sowards.

when they moved to Dayton. Lucien Soward was about ten years of age when his family moved to Dayton, taking him with them, but several men who were his playmates in those days, remember him, and he is also known among members of the bar.

Lucien Soward is a second cousin of James Soward, Market and Whitehill streets, and of George Soward, of South Collier street. Elisha Soward, father of the local men, who now lives in Dayton, was a first cousin of the late Alfred Soward, father of the murdered attorney. Lucien A. Soward was also a cousin of Roseo Soward, of the Soward-Anderson piano company, Dayton.

All four walls were spotted with blood. It looks like a shambles. No one was seen to enter or leave the office either in the morning or afternoon. A trail of blood in the hallway ended a few feet from the outer door to the private office. The office is located on the eleventh floor of the Reibold building.

Soward's murder goes down in the criminal annals of Dayton as the most gory and gruesome. There is an element of mystery about it that baffled the police, yesterday, and last night but they put a great deal of faith in the tip from the unnamed man and woman.

After Hendrix made his startling discovery occupants of neighboring offices recalled loud talking in Soward's office. A young woman employed at a beauty shop just across the hall said she heard some one inquire,

WILL HEAD ITALIAN DELEGATION IS WORD

Rome, Oct. 11.—Senator Carlo Shanger, will head the Italian delegation to the Washington conference on limitation of armaments and far east problems, it was officially announced today. The other members of the Italian delegation will be Signor Filippo Meda, a Catholic member of the chamber of deputies; Senator Luigi Albertini, editor of the Corriere Sera and Signor Rolandi Ricci, Italian ambassador to the United States. Premier Bonomi will not go to the U. S. because the decision is already officially known.

President Ebert presided at the cabinet meeting which was convened immediately after the return to this city of Chancellor Wirth. The object of the conference was to agree upon a clear cut ministerial program.

Overwork, worry, overeating and lack of exercise and sleep are responsible for much kidney trouble. If your back aches and the kidneys seem weak, rest up and use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Leonard Jones, car inspector, Home Ave., Xenia, gave the following statement Aug. 2, 1917: "Heavy lifting and working in a cramped position while repairing cars brought on lumboago. I was stiff and lame across the small of my back. After I had worked in a cramped position for a few minutes I could hardly straighten up. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and began to use them. They certainly proved to be the medicine I needed for I began to get better immediately and after using a few boxes was rid of this attack. Since then I have resorted to Doan's at the first symptom of lumboago and they quickly relieve it."

On Aug. 15, 1921, Mr. Jones confirmed the above statement by saying: "Doan's deserve the highest praise I can give them as they absolutely cured me of kidney trouble some years ago."

CONGRESSMAN WILL OPPOSE EVICTION OF LORAIN FAMILIES

Akron, Oct. 11.—Congressman C. L. Knight of the Fourteenth district, this noon took a hand in the proceedings intended to eject within three days 200 Lorain, Ohio, families from the houses built by the shipping board during the world war for being in arrears in their rent.

Knight also sent a telegram to William Towers at Philadelphia which says:

"I am advised that the shipping board has issued an order to evict on a three day notice tenants on the corporation's property in Lorain, Ohio, who are in arrears in their rent. Such action is nothing short of an outrage and I vigorously protest against it. These people are for the most part former government employees. Their rent is in arrears because they are out of work. They are out of work because of the general demoralization brought upon the country through government waste and extravagance, for which the shipping board is largely responsible."

The report agreed upon by the steering committee as embodying the consensus of opinion among the various sub committees, recommends:

1—Readjustment of railway rates on a fairer basis of the relative value of commodities, and with reduction of rates on primary commodities, at the same time safeguarding the financial stability of the roads.

2—Speedy completion of the tax bill with its contemplated reduction of taxes in order that business now held back pending definite determination may proceed.

3—Immediate settlement or definite postponement of tariff legislation, in order that business may determine its future conduct and policy.

4—Settlement of the government's financial relationship with the railroads having in mind the immediate necessity for increased maintenance and betterments, making effective increased employment and stimulation of general employment, in order that the railways may be prepared for enlarged business as it comes.

5—Limitation of world armament and consequent increase of tranquility and further decrease of tax burden, not only of the United States but of other countries.

Please delay further action on ejection of renters at Lorain until situation can be fully investigated.

SALES TAX URGED BY SEN. SMOOT

Washington, Oct. 11.—The sales tax as a basis for real and lasting revision and simplification of the present irksome and cumbersome system of taxation imposed upon the American people by the world war, was urged upon the senate today by Senator Reed Smoot, Republican of Utah, member of the senate finance committee.

Senator Smoot's plan embodies a direct manufacturers and producers tax of three per cent. He proposed it as a substitute for the pending tax revision bill and the Republican compromise which is to replace it.

Although he does not anticipate that his proposal will command a majority vote, Senator Smoot is confident that not later than next year, the sales tax will be adopted as the keystone of the American tax system.

The Smoot plan calls for the creation of six main sources of revenue.

1—Manufacturers and producers sales tax;

2—Individual income tax;

3—Corporation tax;

4—Customs duties imposed by the tariff;

5—Inheritance or estate tax;

6—Tobacco tax.

DIES OF INJURIES RECEIVED IN CAR WRECK RECENTLY

As the result of injuries he received in an automobile accident north of Cedarville, several weeks ago, C. M. Crouse, 66, prominent resident of Cedarville, passed away at his home in that place, Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Crouse received internal injuries, when the machine in which he was riding with a party of Springfield men, overturned in a ditch near Cedarville, September 15. At first it was not thought that his injuries were of a serious nature. Internal hemorrhages resulted recently which hastened his death.

Mr. Crouse was born in Maryland, told to Cedarville, when a young man. He was married twice, his first wife being Miss Josie Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barber of Cedarville. Her death occurred about 15 years ago. His second marriage to Miss Carrie Townsley, took place in 1910. One son was born to them, dying in infancy.

Besides his widow, Mr. Crouse is survived by four sisters. Funeral services were held at the late home in Cedarville, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, in charge of the Rev. J. P. White of the United Presbyterian Church at Cedarville. Interment was made at Massie Creek cemetery.

CONFERENCE WILL PLACE BLAME OVER WIDE FIELD SOON

Washington, Oct. 11.—President Harding's unemployment conference probably will sidestep all controversies and bring in a final report which distributes over a wide field, the blame for present widespread unemployment and economic depression.

The consensus of opinion of the various committee reports were combined today in one general report under the supervision of the steering committee. It will be submitted to the conference as a whole this afternoon and probably adopted.

It will be observed that there is an entire disproportion between the prices of primary commodities and the ultimate retail price; these disproportions in progressive stages of distribution, are due to increased cost of transportation, enlarged profits, interest, taxes, labor and other charges."

The report agreed upon by the steering committee as embodying the consensus of opinion among the various sub committees, recommends:

1—Readjustment of railway rates on a fairer basis of the relative value of commodities, and with reduction of rates on primary commodities, at the same time safeguarding the financial stability of the roads.

ALL ARMED TO THE TEETH BUT THE UNITED STATES.

When the arms parley gets around to the subject of dealing with land forces it will discover that the round earth is cumbered by armed men. A recent tabulation shows that fourteen nations are now supporting no less than 6,000,000 soldiers.

Of all the nations aligned against the Central Powers in the Great War, the United States is the one country that has brought about a complete demobilization of its land forces. Three years have passed; the grasses of three summers have carpeted the shell-sashed Western, Eastern, Saloniki and other fronts, but Europe has not finished with demobilizing and is no more than dreaming far-off dreams of disarming.

Germany has demobilized and all but disarmed. Germany is the only first-class military power that has done so, and Germany, ringed around with bayonets, had either to disarm or die.

France? With 1,034,000 men under arms, France watches Germany, troubled by the future. She will keep her army, conference or no conference, unless she can in some way be assured against another German attack. The Polish army, staffed and instructed by France, watches Germany from the east and stands as the advance post of Western Europe against the Soviets. The lowest possible estimate of the Soviet army is 538,000 men. Along Russia's western rim new Balkans and old Balkans are armed to the teeth.

The British have 745,000 men, and they need them what with Ireland, Egypt and India. Peaceful Italy has 350,000; Japan has 300,000; Greece with its Asia Minor war has 255,000 and needs more, and Spain with the Moslems surging toward the sea has 253,000. Even Switzerland, traditionally at peace, has 170,000, while the United States has but 149,000.

Asia is weighted with armed men. The total forces in the Chinese civil war number 1,370,000. Armies move in Siberia. Trouble stirs in South Asia.

Overnight these 6,000,000 could be increased from trained reservists to 20,000,000 or even more. The old war machine still stands intact. The nations still file by, paying tribute to Mars. A half dozen major and minor wars are under way.

The round earth is cumbered by armed enmity and the Seven Seas are crowded with armed ships. No nation dares act singly, separately and alone in reducing a burden that bears hard upon them all. The one hope of its being lessened rests with the conference that will assemble in Washington on November 11.

EIGHTEENTH AMENDMENT NULLIFIED IN CHICAGO.

Open defiance of the national prohibition law in the city of Chicago has excited nation-wide interest, and has disturbed not a little every citizen who is concerned for the moral welfare of our nation.

The almost intolerable local situation was made a matter of public knowledge when Charles Fitzmorris, youthful chief of police transferred 800 of his force and made a statement that half of Chicago's police force of 5,000 men were either boot-leggers or mixed up in the illicit liquor traffic. Chief Fitzmorris said: "Prohibition enforcement in Chicago is a joke. That statement not only goes for the police but for the citizens. I'm going to divorce the police force from the illicit liquor traffic if I have to discharge half of the force." He stated that 3,500 of the 5,000 saloons in Chicago are selling liquor and beer openly. Arthur Burrgae Farwell, leader of Chicago's reform element since 1871, sent a letter to President Harding asking him to use his influence to induce Congress to send an investigating committee to Chicago with power to subpoena witnesses and fix the blame for the nullification of national law. The issue involved is of a significance which shall not escape the thoughtful. If moral laxity in this nation has reached a point where constitutional law may be openly defied the shadow of Babylon's doom is upon us. We believe, however, that national public sentiment is very imperfectly represented by great cities such as New York and Chicago. These and other great cities contain vast masses of population which, if not wholly degenerate, are at least essentially godless, but our faith in the moral soundness of America as a whole has not been shaken. Every citizen loyal to America and true to God shall support unreservedly and continually by word and vote and example both the letter and the spirit of the constitutional law of our land.—United Presbyterian.

DESCENDANT OF "LAST OF THE SIGNERS" HAS JUST DIED IN FRANCE.

Charles Carroll of Maryland, who played a prominent part in American Red Cross work in Italy during the war, died suddenly in the garden of his villa at Mentone, near Nice, France, last Thursday.

Charles Carroll was the head of a famous manorial family of Maryland, a direct descendant of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, who signed the Declaration of Independence and who, from the fact that he survived until 1832—he was ninety-five years old when he died—is known in history as the Last of the Signers. Their prominence in public affairs for more than 200 years and their many intermarriages over the same period with the nobility of Europe have made the Carrolls probably the best known of Maryland families at home and abroad.

The Charles Carroll who has just died was the son of the late John Lee Carroll, one-time Governor of Maryland.

Mr. Carroll passed the greater part of his life in Paris, but took always the keenest interest in American affairs and during the war served as a captain of the American Red Cross in Italy and was one of the founders of the American Ambulance Corps in Paris. He was awarded medals by Italy and also the Cross of the Legion of Honor.

With his wife, who was formerly Miss Bancroft, granddaughter of the celebrated historian, he returned to the wonderful Carroll estate, Doughoregan Manor, near Ellicott City, Maryland, a few years ago, but remained there only a comparatively short time, for Mr. and Mrs. Carroll decided to re-establish their residence abroad.

Suit to set aside a will has been filed with Clerk of Courts Elam, Mary E. Grooms, daughter of the testator, being plaintiff in the action against Frances Helen Adams, the widow, and Frances Helen Adams as executrix with the will annexed of the estate of J. T. Adams.

The plaintiff claims that J. T. The plaintiff further asserts that through persuasion, annoyance and undue influence brought by the defendant that he was induced to execute the pretended will, which she asks be set aside and made an issue as to its validity. My shining car no more you see around my stately residence; the windshield's hanging from a tree, the axles are astride a fence, and wearily my weird I dree, and wonder why I have no sense. "Don't go so fast," I have been told by many wise and prudent guys, "or soon a wooden box will hold a delegate about your size;" their counsel was as good as gold, but prudent counsel I despise. And so I stepped upon the gas and made my gilded wagon fly, and I would let no auto pass, however fiercely it might try; and sage advice like sounding brass appeared to me, as I whizzed by. "I've warned you once, I've warned you twice," the friendly speed cop to me said, "and if I have to warn you thrice, a prison cot will be your bed; or maybe you'll be laid on ice, with tapers at your feet and head." My pastor urged me to reform, and use my small supply of brains; "all day," he said, "the saps heads storm along the pike in noisy wains, and soon the coroners will swarm, and sit on your and their remains." And so I went my dippy way, and laughed at maxims and at saws, at frantic speed I pushed my dray, and busted all the traffic laws; and now you see me here today, the worst old wreck that ever was. Learned surgeons try to make me straight, but they are worried and perplexed; apothecaries near me wait, and pastors, with their timely text; and staid morticians, at the gate, are saying that their turn is next.

WORK OF SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE SHOWS BIG GAIN

With the appearance of cool weather, the work of the Social Service League of the city, has shown a decided increase during the past month, according to the report made by Mrs. Carrie L. Robertson, executive secretary of the organization, at the monthly meeting held in the City Commissioners' room, Monday evening.

Forty-nine families were given aid during the past month by the League, heading the list of the activities of the workers. The lack of employment in the city is noted by the application to the Social Service Headquarters, and the securing of positions for the applicants.

The need of clothing by many families in the city is being taken care of, as shown by the amount of wearing apparel given out during September. Donations of clothing from stores amounted to $22,54 and 275 garments were donated from other sources to the League, one hundred and forty garments being sold or given out during that time.

Four societies are serving for the League, in solving the clothing problem, during the winter. The societies are the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid, the Trinity Ladies' Aid, Mrs. A. E. Faulkner's Sunday School class of the First M. E. Church and the Young Women's Missionary Society of the Second U. P. Church.

During the month, the League co-operated with the school board, Red Cross, Cincinnati Humane Society, Township Trustees, State Welfare Department, Juvenile Court, Opportunity School, Board of Health and the Springfield Tuberculosis Hospital.

Future plans were discussed at the meeting, in regard to extending the work of the League, arranging for the annual drive, putting on a Red Cross Christmas Seal Sale and other matters.

Reports were given showing that many families in the city are rearing children in an undernourished condition, stunting the development of mind and body, and the work of the League will deal with the care of this problem.

One of the foremost creators of fashions in America has not forgotten the favor accorded last Spring to the three-piece suit, and presents this good-looking model which consists of a simple, slim-line dress with elbow length sleeves and square neck, the normal waistline indicated by the gathered fulness at the sides, drawn in to the figure with a narrow, gilt buckled belt. The material used is black duvetin, with a cut work applique of gray duvetin to match the squirrel trimming of the swagger box coat. A harmonious touch is added to the costume by the charming gray felt hat with fringed sides and galalith ornament.

GAME IS BOOKED

The American Legion football team, which has won two and lost one game, in three starts, will play the Dayton Mascots, next Sunday at Gatch field.

The Mascots are old rivals of local independent football teams and are out with a strong lineup this season. Coach Baldwin believes the combination used last Sunday is the strongest the team has boasted this season, and there will likely be little change from now on. The addition of Allen Burton, former Central high school star and his brother, Fred Burton, has greatly strengthened the lineup, and with the backfield now working smoothly the eleven gives evidence of being at top speed.

NUXATED IRON

Helps make rich, red blood and revitalize weak nerves

IS THIN WATERY BLOOD RUINING YOUR HEALTH?

AND SAPPING YOUR BODILY AND MENTAL VIGOR, LEAVING YOU WEAK, NERVOUS AND IRRITABLE AND MAKING A FAILURE OUT OF YOU? HOW TO TELL

If you suspect you may be suffering from iron starvation, do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but consult your family physician and have him take a specimen of your blood and make a "blood count" of your red blood corpuscles or test the iron-power of your blood yourself by adding plenty of green vegetables to your diet and taking vegetables to your daily food and take organic iron like Nuxated Iron with them for a while and see how much your condition improves.

Thousands of people have surprisingly increased their strength, energy and endurance in two weeks' time by this simple experiment. In making this test, be sure the iron you take is organic iron, like Nuxated Iron, not metallic or mineral iron which people usually take. Organic Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent to eating a quart of meat. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package and for the letters N.I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. DINNER STORIES

The door of the superintendent's office at the county asylum burst open and the new attendant rushed in breathlessly.

"Sir," he reported, "Jones has just hanged himself."

"And did you cut him down?" demanded the superintendent in exasperation.

"Oh, no, sir. He wasn't dead yet."

A woman about to board a trolley car at a Boston suburb, asked the conductor:

"Does this car go to Mattapan?"

"No, madam," replied the conductor.

"That's funny," remarked the woman.

"Yes, madam; but I haven't got time to laugh," retorted the conductor, pulling his bell rope.

The next day the superintendent of the line called the conductor before him and asked:

"What was it you said to that woman yesterday, when she said it was funny your car did not go to Mattapan?"

The conductor grinned and replied, "I said yes, it was funny, but I was late and did not have time to laugh."

"Take three days off without pay and laugh," replied the superintendent.

"This machine," said the agent, "takes all the drudgery out of dish washing. After breakfast your wife can sit down and read the morning paper while the machine does the work."

"Take it away," said the man of the house. "My wife gets too much time to read the bargain sale ads as it is."

"I want to be excused," said the worried-looking jurymen, addressing the judge. "I owe man $5 I borrowed, and as he is leaving town today for some years I want to catch him before he gets on the train and pay him the money."

"You are excused," returned his honor, in icy tones. "I don't want anybody on the jury who can lie like that."

The housekeeper-hostess need feel no apology in placing food left-overs before a guest if they are prepared in some such dainty way as in the following supper menus:

Pickled Onions Vegetable Salad
Tea Muffins
Lemon Tarts

Fish Cutlets. Chop fine the remnants of cold fish, seasoning to suit taste with salt and pepper; add just enough cream sauce to moisten slightly. (The mixture should be quite thick). Now heat it in the upper part of a double boiler after measuring. When it is hot, add 1 egg-koll for every cup and half of the fish. Let cook only a few minutes after adding the egg yolks. Turn out onto a platter to cool mixed with two tablespoons of chopped parsley. When quite cold, form into small cutlets; roll these in bread crumbs, dip them in egg, then roll them in bread crumbs again. Cook in deep, hot fat by means of a frying basket. When a rich brown, draw on crumpled brown paper a moment and serve with a slice of lemon.

Prune Whip

Chicken Mould in Aspic—Break two cups of cold, left-over chicken into small pieces (or use the contents of a can of boned chicken) and set it aside.

Prepare a jelly from 1 cup of vegetable stock strained (canned vegetable soup may be used if desired), 1 cup of syrup drained from a jar of sweet pickles, a dash of salt, pepper and celery salt, and 1 rounding tablespoon of granulated gelatine softened in 1-1/2 cup of cold water; heat this mixture until the gelatine is dissolved, set it aside till it begins to stiffen (you can tell when this stage is reached by way it clings to the edge of the bowl when the bowl is tipped slightly) then stir in the chicken, one sliced hard boiled egg, a few bits of parsley and one-half cup of sliced drained sweet pickles. Chill on ice in a square mould which has been rinsed out with cold water before the gelatine mixture is put into it.

Brazilian Stuffed Peppers: Split 6 large green peppers, down one side, remove seeds and stem, and simmer in boiling water for 1 hour. Then place flat in a meat pan and heap on the two spread halves a mixture made of 1 cup of cold, left-over cooked meat, put through the food chopper with 8 stuffed olives and two thick slices of bread then seasoned to taste with salt and pepper and moistened slightly with hot water. Heap this stuffing high on each flatly spread pepper and place a each piece of raw bacon over each (this not only gives a delicious flavor but helps to hold the stuffing on the peppers—and, incidentally, to give an appetizing appearance to the dish when served). Pour a little hot water in the pan. Bake in a moderate oven for 45 minutes then slip the pan under a top-over flame or grill so that the bacon will brown crisply. Serve very hot.

JOAN VISITS HER MOTHER CHAPTER 60

"I wonder if Joan goes to that sort of a place because she likes it or because she thinks it is smart?" Margaret said to Forrester when they were rolling up town in a taxi.

"Oh, it's just a fad!" her escort replied "she'll get tired of it after a bit."

"I hope so. Really I hate to have her get into the habit of wandering about New York with Tom, Dick and Harry. Did you see how terribly shocked she looked because I was smoking, yet how she took it as a matter of course that 17 year old Martha Hardy should smoke..."

"Indeed I did! It was ridiculously funny. Had she not been in such a state of surprise she would have known you could not smoke. You were terribly awkward for a graceful woman."

"How I hated to do it! But I wanted her to know just how people feel about such things, and so let her experience it."

"I cannot make up my mind whether you are very clever or very foolish in your handling of Joan. You certainly are unique," Forrester remarked, laughing as he recalled the struggle Margaret had to hide her dislike of the cigarette.

"Perhaps I was foolish in the beginning, yet I am not ready to concede even that. But now Joan must find out things for herself. All I can do is to influence her opinion when she isn't aware I am doing it. I shall let her know I smoked because she and others did—Martha particularly. That I had it, and nothing would ever make me smoke again. Yet the shock to her will remain. She will hate smoking because of the feeling it aroused in her. You see I know my daughter."

Margaret refused Forrester's plea to come in and visit with her for an hour. Her mind was full of Joan, her promised visit. Over and over she rehearses what she should say to her, how she would show her that a mother had fully as much right to live her own life as a daughter had and that without apology. That was what Margaret feared the most in the coming interview with Joan: that she would be tempted to apologize instead of simply explaining her actions.

She told Hannah of Joan's visit, that she was to remain to dinner. Mrs. Walters, Craig Forrester, and one or two other guests would help over any awkwardness.

"Have all the things Joan likes," Margaret said.

"Of course I will! The poor lamb," Hannah answered.

Skin Diseases Due To Waste Products In The Blood

For Genuine Relief Your Blood Must Be Purified.

For real, downright, harrassing discomfort, very few disorders can approach so-called skin diseases, such as eczema, tetter boils, eruptions, scaly irritations and similar skin troubles, notwithstanding the lavish use of salves, lotions, washes and other treatments applied externally to the irritated parts.

To correct the basic trouble—waste products—the blood must be purified. Don't clog the rest. Pure, rich, red blood nourishes the body and fights off disease.

S. S. S., the standard blood purifier and system builder, is the ideal remedy for skin eruptions. The effect of S. S. S. is to rid the system of the waste products which are causing the trouble. For over 50 years S. S. S. has proven to be of unusual merit. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write for 5¢ page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood" free.

"I Will Add 10 Years to Your Life To Enjoy the Pleasures and Health of Mature Youth"

NEWTON discovered the law of falling bodies—Curie perfected the use of radium—but I have found what Ponce de Leon sought in Florida—EXTENDED YOUTH! I believe that wise men do not grow old, that the sunset of their lives is YOUTH PLUS EXPERIENCE and that they have earned a second playtime—to fish, hunt, toss horse-shoes and play all the games we knew as boys. I want to add 10 happy, healthful years to the lives of Ohio folks by building modern winter homes for them in warm Florida. A home with all our Ohio conveniences and costing less than an Ohio barn!"

"Listen, Ohio friends, I will provide a winter home in the garden spot of Florida—on the wide, beautiful St. Johns River and the newly-built Dixie Highway—a home just like you want it with electric lights, bath, toilet and running water—one hour's drive from Jacksonville—2½ hours from a picnic spot on the ocean beach; far enough away not to get the ocean's dreaminess. It will be near the famous Green Cove medicinal springs. You can stand on the front porch of this winter home and shoot a rifle to churches of every denomination and the school buildings."

"This new, modern home, that will cost you less than to build an Ohio barn, will be on an improved street, in a modernly arranged model sub-division and neighboring to successful Ohio folks like yourself, who are enjoying their second play-time. To winter at hotels would cost $15 to $25 a day—and it's only slightly cheaper at a boarding house—but, in your winter home you will have all the comforts you now enjoy with all the sweetness of home cooking and companionship and, in addition, the balmy air, blossoming fruit trees, healthful sunshine and the many outdoor pastimes of Florida at less cost than spending a winter in a hotel or boarding house."

FROM the age of twelve a girl needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time.

If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter make life easier for her.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions. It can be taken in safety by any woman, young or old.

Her grandmother had been taking

She began to improve with the first bottle and took five in all and was entirely restored to health.

For a time she had not been able to attend school, but she does now.
